MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence
FROM : Angus MacLean Thuermer
Assistant to the Director
SUBJECT : Face the Nation

Ms. Joan Barone of CBS has asked if you could appear on "Face the Nation" the Sunday after the Senate Select Committee comes out with its report, probably April 25th.

She said that she had talked to Spencer Davis, the Committee's PR. He said that he did not think the Committee would come out with its report on the 15th of April but it would slip until the 22nd.

I made no promises for either the 25th or for any other date after the Select Committee report, merely saying I would pass on the request. STATINTL

Dear Dennis:

September 16, 1976

A short note to re-register my concern about a long standing agreement I thought we had with the Press Department of the CIA regarding Mr. Bush's appearance on FACE THE NATION.

As you know, Ambassador Bush went on MEET THE PRESS February 22. He was then booked on ISSUES in March. After ISSUES cancelled his appearance for reasons I don't know, we were assured by Angus Theurmer that we were next in line --- "when the time was right." We extended several invitations in March, April and May. In May we were told Ambassador Bush would not be available during the summer.

When Mr. Theurmer left, we talked by phone and I was still under the impression that Mr. Bush would be on FACE next. So you can imagine my surprise when I learned he was going on ISSUES this Sunday.

Has Ambassador Bush declined our invitation because I would not guarantee that our correspondents would not ask political questions or is there another reason? I will appreciate any light you can put on the subject, and, if possible, can you let me know where we stand now?

Sincerely,

Mary O. Yates

Dear Mr. Bush:

This past Spring my predecessor issued you an invitation to speak here at Catholic University, but you were not able to come and you expressed a willingness to perhaps set a date in the future. I now reissue that invitation and I would be most honored to have you speak here at the Catholic University of America. I am sure that your appearance would arouse great student response. Please contact me at the above address.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely yours,

Richard Joseph, Chairman
